

FACE-TO-FACE

Once again, the time has come for the Kuwaa mission board members to assemble for their face to face meeting. This year's meeting took place in the Beautiful State of Alaska in the city of Anchorage. We met at St Mark Lutheran Church. Much business was discussed to include our bylaws and operational procedures. There was also much discussion about the future of the Mission, along with the discussion of new and existing projects. There was also discussion about the new members coming in and members whose time has come to an end. We are looking forward to new Kuwaa Mission board members being announced soon. There can't be enough said about all the past and present board members who have given their undivided time, talent, and commitment to the Kuwaa Mission. To say thank you is not enough, but we say thank you anyway and God bless each one from the C.E.O to the volunteers and pray partners, and supporting church congregations. Thanks for all you do on behalf of the Kuwaa Mission.
